Individual Contribution Log

Your Name:	Himani Nigam
Contribution Team	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Name and Motto team: Lisa and Himani• Introductions team: Lisa, Caralee, Himani
Description of Contributions	Name and Motto Team Contribution: Lisa and I brainstormed several names for our cohort. We came up with six -seven names that we liked. We liked the idea of a name starting with “E” since we are cohort 11(Eleven). We discussed some names with other cohort members. After discussing, we created a survey using google forms to take a vote of the names that other people liked. After several round of voting, we all agreed on the name “The Elevated Eleven” for our cohort. I liked the Roman numeral XI for number 11 so I recommended that we use that for our number 11, which was liked by all the members of our group. After the name was established, we brainstormed words that would define the motto of our group. We liked words that begin with “e” as it went well with our name. After coming up with several words and voting on them, Lisa and I

	chose the words “Elevate, Engage and Empower” as the motto of our group. All the group members voted in favor of the words and we finalized our motto. Introductions team contribution: This was not a formal team. While other people were busy with making the website. We wanted to do something for the showcase. Lisa and I again brainstormed some ideas about how we should go about doing our introductions during the showcase. We liked the idea that we should introduce each other. We wanted to present each other as “what we are” right now and what we are “most likely to be or become” after we finish the program. Lisa came up with the idea about “most likely to”. After our Library presentation we all sat down in the room and I asked each person about their introductions, what they want to be presented as. I wrote down all the responses and Caralee typed them in a document. Caralee shared the document with me. When I got home I reviewed the document, made corrections and printed it in a bigger font so everybody could read. The next day, I handed over the papers to each members so they can read the introductions while on stage. I also organized the members in the order they would stand on stage and how we will walk up onstage during the showcase.
Your Strengths	Adaptable – I can adapt to all kinds of situations very quickly. Flexible – I am flexible in my thinking and working. I am open to changes and can accommodate other people’s point of view very easily. Hard worker – I work hard and will make sure that the work gets done. Team player – I value each person’s opinion, I can delegate work and do whatever it takes to

	get the work done. I have often in the past done more than my share of work so that the team doesn't suffer. Punctuality – I like to always be on time or before time.
Your Weaknesses	Procrastination – sometimes I will wait to do things till the last moment and then have to rush through them or stay up late into the night to do them. I am working on it and it is getting slightly better. It's a work in progress. Organization – I am not very organized and can have my papers in various places. I am working very hard on it, but my desk is always messy. Overanalyzing – sometimes I over analyze thing and get stressed about things.
